GOVERNMENT TO USE ITS POWERS AGAINST STRIKE

Administration To Call On Department of Justice to Take Action

WALKOUT FORBIDDEN

Workers Ordered Not to Leave Posts Until Result of Conference Next Wednesday is Announced.

Washington, Oct. 22.—The Federal Government, it was stated officially today, was not preparing to invoke its technical wartime powers in order to meet the railroad strike crisis. It is, however, determined to employ all its peace powers, first to avert the strike, if possible, and if not, to maintain some degree of transportation during the period of the walkout.

The first move in that direction was taken in Chicago today, it was added, when the Railroad Labor Board cited both the railroads and teh employes now engaged in wage controversy to appear before it for a judicial determination whether or not either or both are violating the Transportation act.

If either or both may be found to be guilty of such violation, the violators in all possibility will be proceeded against by the Department of Justice. It remains for the department to determine whether it will seek an injunction at the hands of a Federal Court as the first step in the proceedings.

It is commonly agreed here that if the board falls down on the vast proposition before it, the Administration will be forced to assume full leadership in further meeting the emergency. A president might wash his hands of such a matter, it is agreed, but none would dare do so, it is added. The country has only its government to look to in such a situation and the Government will respond this time, if there is need, just as it did when President Wilson acceded to the demands of the railroad brotherhoods in 1916.

It is not assumed for a minute in official circles, however, that President Harding is prepared or prearing to surrender to the dissatisfied railway employes. His advisers still insist that he will do nothing of the sort; that he will put his back to the wall, when the time comes, and will invite a strike rather than give in to either the railroads or to the men.

There has been general discussion today of the power of the President, in emergencies, to take over the railroads and operate them. It has been found by legal authorities of the War Department that under the National Defense act of 1916, such authority is given during a period of war. It was this law under which President Wilson acted in taking over the railroads early in the war.

But, as already indicated, President Harding is disinclined to act under any of the technical war powers. He hopes to bring the state of war to an end within 10 days, he let it be known this afternoon.

Although the railway wage situation is less encouraging than it was Administration officials are still of the opinion that there will be no strike.

All eyes for the time being are turned upon Chicago, where the Railroad Labor Board is seeking to enforce the law under which that body was created and which provides that its decisions as to railraod wages shall be final.

If that effort fails, as did the informal conference between members of the board and brotherhood leaders, the battle ground necessarily will be transferred once more to Washington.

It is generally believed that the President as a last resort, will summon leaders of all interests to a White House conference in a final effort to adjust the situation.

As you have doubtless read in this column this week the Dreadnaughts will open their 1921 Football season with the strong Emrald A. C., of Washington on Baggets Field Sunday at three o'clock. As this is the only game in the city Sunday there will be no doubt a large crowd present. In their preliminary game yesterday they looked very good, running up 25 points without much effort You will see one of the best teams for its weight that has ever represented this city with a fast backfield that know how to go. Unusual hard work has been their motto for the past three weeks, and you will no doubt see one of the cleanest and fastest games ever played.

The Emeralds are loosing no time in getting ready to trim the D's but as a lot of people from Missouri live in Virginia there may be a different story to be told after the final whistle blows. Tell your friends who are followers of the pigskin they will make no mistake if they are on Baggets Field Sunday at three o'clock.

OPEN SEASON

Dreadnaught Football Team Plays First Game Tomorrow

Keeping the Dreadnaughts in the map in the world of sports their foot ball team will open the 1921 season Sunday at 3 o'clock on Baggett's Field with the strong Emerald A. C., of Washington. A team made solely of Alexandria boys who are game and fast, and who make one of the best elevens for their weight who have ever represented this city in the pigskin game. Being the only game in the city Sunday, this should draw one of the largest crowds who ever witnessed a game in this city. It is hoped that if you are a lover of football you will be present Sunday when the whistle blows.

RIVER FRONT LAND CASE IS ARGUED

Decision Rests With United States Supreme Court

INVOLVES 45 ACRES

Attorney James R. Caton Represented Claimants Before High Court—Case of Importance to City.

The ownership of forty-five acres of reclaimed lond on the Potomac in this city is now before the United States Supreme Court. Arguments in this case were made this week before that tribunal by Attorney James R. Caton of this city on behalf of his clients. The government was represented by H. H. Glassie, assistant United States attorney general.

The suit grew out of the filling in of the land on the river front around the plant of the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation and the plant of the Marine Railway and Shipbuilding Company, the latter formerly known as Agnew's shipyard. Mr. Caton represents the owners of the last named piece of property.

This suit has been pending in the courts for several years past and has been in one court after another.

The decision of the United States Supreme Court of this suit is awaited with considerable interest, not only by the owners of this property, but also by the commercial interests of the city inasmuch as is may mean that the Government eventually claim other land on the river front that has been reclaimed.

Mr. Caton has worked hard on this case and probably is more familiar with the riparian rights than ayn other attorney in this section of Virginia. It is expected that a decision will be handed down in this case within thirty days.

WASHINGTON DAY BY DAY

From Our Correspondent

Washington, Oct. 22.—All is not well between Commissioner of Internal Revenue David H. Blair and U. S. Prohibition Commissioner, Roya' A. Haynes. And the differences between the two grow out of the employment by Haynes of a press agent, Sherman Cuneo by name. Cuneo, it seems, has been resorting to small town tactics in the preparation and dissemination of matter from the Prohibition Office, a vast amount of which has brought forth criticism and ridicule upon the Commissioner of Internal Revenue himself, despite the fact that Mr. Blair had absolutely nothing to do with the circulation of such propaganda until he read it in the newspapers. It is apparent that there is to be a showdown between the Internal Revenue Commissioner and the Prohibition Commissioner for the hair is flying thick and fast just now.

Carl Groat, who has been in Germany for more than a year covering that country for a news agency, was at the White House today. Carl says that if you walk into a bar in Vienna and lay down fifty cents in perfectly good American money you can have everything in the bar. He declares that if you go into Poland and put a one dollar in American money on the counter you need a trunk to carry off the change. Incidentally, Carl regrets that he had to come back to America just at this time.

The telephone rang at the office of the British Embassy on Nineteenth Street. A correspondent asked the operator to put him in touch with one of the secretaries.

"Is former Premier Asquith a member of the British Cabinet at this time?" was the query put to the attache.

The latter hesitated for a moment, his face grew redder than the average Englishman's, but he finally braced up and made this reply:

"Really, old fellow, I cawn't say whether Mr. Asquith is a member of the British Cabinet at this time or no. One has to live in London to keep up with such matters and we on the other side of the water are not kept informed of the various changes that take place in the Cabinet from time to time. I'm in a dreadfully big hurry just now or I would find out for you. You will pardon my apparent stupidity, I beg of you."

Some spicy exchanges of personalities took place a few days ago between Representative Madden and Representative McClintic, of Oklahoma. Madden charged that by demanding roll calls on the point of no quorum McClintic was wasting the time of the House at a cost of $20,000 a day to the people of the country. Then he read into the record a letter written by McClintic in 1915 asking for seeds and other gratuities for his constituents.

When McClintic succeeded in getting the floor he said in reply to Madden:

"Any member who will stand on this floor and refer to the illustrious General Robert E. Lee as a traitor can never hurt my feelings or insult me. I do not intend to attack him. I knew a man once who kicked a pole cat and he was mussed up so that he could not enter decent society for many weeks thereafter."

A wave of strong expletives, if not profanity, has swept through official life in Washington since the testimony of General Charles G. Dawes before a House probing committee. For instance, here is the choice story now being told by a very distinguished and dignified head of one of the departments:

"In a small village there was a sort of a philosopher to whom all of the boys rushed when puzzled over any educational problem. One day one of the boys heard of the expression 'status quo' and since none of his companions could explain the term, they rushed to the wise old man who professed to know everything.

"Now the old fellow was completely flabbergasted, but he did not wish to confess his ignorance for fear the boys would lose confidence in him and question his knowledge.

"Ah, you boys certainly must know what that means,' said the old chap. 'You are just professing ignorance.'

"During all this time he was just stalling trying to extricate himself from a bad hole. Then a brilliant idea struck him.

"'Why boys, 'status quo' means being in a h—l of a fix.'"

TWO SPEAKERS AT G.O.P. RALLY IN OPERA HOUSE

Congresswoman Alice Robertson and Ex-Senator Marion Butler Speak

BUTLER SCORES VA.

Declares Taxes That Should Go For Schools and Roads Go to Keep Up 45,000 Office Holders.

Congresswoman Alice Robertson, of Oklahoma, last night made an address at the rally in the Opera House held under the auspices of the city republican club. The speaker told her hearers that at one time she was president of the anti-suffrage association, and added that when suffrage became operative she did not enlist but was drafted and called to the colors and responded to duty. The women she declared won the respect of others by their work. The speaker told of the progress made by the republicans in Oklahoma.

Miss Robertson urged the women to take part in politics and first attend the precinct meetings. Out in Oklahoma her slogan she said, was, "I cannot be bought, I cannot be sold, I cannot be intimidated." There are few women said the speaker who want office. She told of the republicans finding the cubbard bare when they took over the government. Concluding the address she urged the women to enter politics and help make them clean.

Marion Bntler, former United States Senator from North Carolina, opened his address by declaring that today Virginia should be the greatest state in the union, but he added, "today Virginia don't count. The democratic party he asserted has got a halter around the people, and he said they don't care about it and neither does the republican party. The people of Virginia she asserted are worse than the slaves of Europe who left European shores to get rid of the rule of tyrannical kings in order that they might enjoy freedom. Continuing said Mr. Butler, "your people of Virginia are slaves to a political machine. We need to fight to make Virginia safe for democracy. One out of only ten persons in the state vote. Only 89,000 votes were cast in the last election for governor, and there are 45,000 office holder in the state."

"Today there is he said an office holding oligarchy. Virginia he declared had to increase her taxes to pay the office holders.

The speaker also told his hearers that there are 75,000 illlterate children in Virginia. The taxes that should he said be for schools and good roads are used for the support of the office holders he said.

The roads in the state he declared are the worst in the United States. Virginia he asserted has no education, no roads and nothing except 45,000 office holders. The state he said is ruled by the machine. Concluding his address he urged his hearers to vote for Henry W. Anderson, republican nominee for governor, in the election which will be held next November.

The meeting was presided over by D. J. Wolford, president of the city republican club. Among those on the stand were Capt. Fountain Beattie, candidate for clerk of courts; John Barton Phillipas, candidate for clerk of the courts; Ferdinand De Vaughan, candidate for clerk of gas; Mrs. Henry Lockwood, candidate for the state legislature of Arlington county; Mrs. Ola V. Bell, Mrs. Alice Strauss and Charles S. Stoler.

The Lumber Yard Blues, A. C., today defeated the Sunshine Blues A. C., by the score of 20 to 0.

The whole team played a good game, starring for the Lumber Yard Blues was M. Myers, R. Darley, Wm. Travers, G. Beach and D. Peyton. The game was played at Baggett's field Next Saturday the Blues will play at the Shipyard at 10 o'clock.

The deceased had been in failing health for a long tim. She was the wife of Mr. John T. Evans. Bible Thought for Today

THE WINDOWS OF HEAVEN:—Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it. —Malachi 3: 10.

SHOT BY GAME WARDENS

Edward Slaughter, Colored, Winged By Bullet After The Fires

When Edward Slaughter, colored, about 24 years old, was held up by four game wardens at the south end of Hunting Creek bridge about noon today and questioned about illegal hunting he ran and as he did he fired with his shotgun at the four game wardens who were in an automobile. All four men then blazed away at Hamilton as he ran and one of the bullets winged him and he surrendered. He had gone into the camp in Hunting Creek the officers say.

Afterward the game wardens placed Hamilton in their automobile and brought him to the Alexandria Hospital where he was treated for one bullet wound in his back by Dr. S. B. Moore.

Hamilton later was taken in charge by Justice of the Peace Frank W. Troth. His injuries are not serious.

When the game wardens examined the hunting bag carried by Hamilton they found two squirrels, one rabbit and a bird which he had killed. This is not the hunting season for this game and later Hamilton was arraigned before Justice F. W. Troth and fined $25 and 90 days in jail for each offense. Hamilton, therefore, will have to spend two hundred and seventy days in jail and pay a fine of $75 for illegal hunting. In addition Justice Troth held him for the action of the grand jury on a charge of shooting at the game wardens.

The game wardens whom he shot at were Howard Smoot, J. F. Thornton, Charles Owens and Bruce Smoot.

BABY SHOW

The committee reports that registration by telephone has begun and that much interest is manifested in the prizes. Mrs. J. This will assist the mothers in finding the proper section and classification for the babies. Nothing has been left undone to insure order. The Registration Committee, Mrs. Louis N. Duffey and Misss Ruth Spinks, will be at their desks in the entrance hall of the building, at noon, on Tuesday, to distribute tags to the registrants and to enter their names on the books of the committee. The Floor Committee will meet the mothers at the entrance to the auditorium, directing them to the proper section.

JOHN J. DUNN'S BODY SENT TO CHESTER, PA.

Identification Made Today By Undertaker From Chester

Dunn Was Unconcious For Six Days At Hospital—Thought to Be Victim of Wood Alcohol Poisoning.

The body of John J. Dunn, 34 years old, of 527 East Tenth street, Chester, Pa., who died yesterday morning at the Alexandria Hospital, following a six days' stupor supposed to have been caused by wood alcohol poisoning, today was shipped to Chester by Undertakers Demaine and Son. The body was accompanied to that place by L. F. Clancy, a Chester undertaker, who came here this morning and identified the remains. Dunn was unmarried.

According to Mr. Clancy, Dunn left home October 12 and efforts to locate his whereabouts were unavailing till his father saw an account of a man being in an unconscious condition in the hospital here. He at once wrote to Chief of Police Goods and the chief wired a description of Dunn which resulted in the father identifying him through the description. According he notified the chief last night by telegraph that Mr. Clancy would be here today to take charge of the body.

Dunn is survived by his parents and several brothers and sisters. He will be buried probably Monday in Chester, Pa.

Dunn was found on the streets in an unconscious condition last Saturday and Sunday afternoon taken to the hospital and only twice since he had been in the hospital did he show any signs of consciousness and then for a brief period only. All efforts to obtain his name were without avail. He also had been stricken blind.

U.S. TROOPS ON RHINE TO COME HOME SHORTLY

First Contingent Will Leave For United States Within Two Weeks

AWAITING TREATY

Only Problem Awaiting Settlement By U. S. and Germany is Alien Property Issue.

Washington, Oct. 22.—American troops stationed on the Rhine since the close of the war will be started home in small numbers within about 10 days or two weeks, it was learned today from President Harding. About 15,000 are there.

Exactly how many will be in the first contingent to return, how many will be brought home in the near future and whether all that are in Germany will be brought home are questions the Administration has not settled. There are numerous complications attending the situation which have not been adjusted.

The Administration's plan is to bring troops back as transports are available on the other side. Transports are moving across the Atlantic at fairly regular intervals, taking supplies for the troops. Those that can be used for bringing soldiers back will be put to such service until and unless a situation arises in which it is found necessary to halt the homeward movement temporarily.

The return of the soldiers, in part at least, is the first immediate ressult of the ratification of the Treaty of Berlin. Keen interest has been taken in the course to be followed by the Administration regarding the return of the soldiers, and some of the members of Congress, notably Senator Hiram Johnson, are understood to have been prepared to insist, in case there are delay in starting the men back, that the treaty ratification removed all cause for keeping them in Germany.

The President, it appears, is just as anxious as anyone else to get the troops out of Germany. He is concerned to do that, not only by reason of his sympathy with the soldiers who want to return and their relatives who want them back, but because he feels that it is rather hard on Germany to carry the load of maintaining a large body of American troops while she is fighting to get on her feet economically and to achieve what the President has spoken of as her restoration.

Practically all of the men probably would be back in this country within a comparatively short time, it is believed, but for the universal plea that is coming from Europe that some American troops be kept there. Rene Viviani is said to have urged that 500, if no more, be kept in Germany. He was concerned, it is understood, with the moral effect of American troops being kept in the occupied zone with the troops of the Allied nations. Others want the troops there because, it seems, when minor disputes arise the American froces exert a composing influence.

Even Germans want some of the troops kept in the zone, it is said. The reason for that evidently is that Germans feel that so long as they must have foreign soldiers on their soil the situation is eased some what by the presence of Americans. In this connection, it was said with considerable pride by some officials today, that the American troops in Germany "have been 100 per cent." what they should have been and what the country would have had them be."

A TIME-HONORED SPORT

The Virginia Fox Hunters' Association, organized not long since for the protection of dogs and the sport of the chase, will stage a four-days' meet this fall in the neighborhood of Williamsburg. The dates set are November 15, 16, 17 and 18, with that town as headquarters.

It has been said that the battlefields of England were won at Harrow and Eton, and that the out-of-door sports practised at those schools, and the manly spirit thus inculcated and the vigorous bodily foundation thereby laid, made the best soldiers in the world. We should say that the ancient custom of coursing the fox, prevalent in England from the earliest times, had as much to do with the training of her citizenship as any of her other national sports.

Our hard-riding, fox-hunting ancestry in Old England, were firm of bone, tough of sinew, and florid of cheek. They, in turn, were descended from the hardiest race of pirates and cut-throats that ever plundered, pillaged, murdered and burned on foreign shores. The old Norse Vikings have left their impress on their English descendants, even to this day. The Anglo-Saxons, the Danes, the Normans, and further back, the Romans, and furtherest back, the Celts, have likewise mingled the ruddy currents of their blood, and the resultant is, and has always been, a people fond of the roughest of out-of-door sports and a life in the open air.

No one who has ever listened to the music of a pack of hounds in full cry in the early hours of the morning, can forget the thrill that ran through his veins in response. With a mettlesome horse beneath him, a full stretch of level sward, and a fence or a ditch at the end, life seemed to attain a rich fulfilment.

We wish the Virginia Fox Hunters' Association all success. They have a statewide membership, and the indications are that there will be hounds in the meet from every section of the Old Dominion. Those who are members and unable to bring their mounts with them will be provided with horses. Quarters and feed will also be furnished for their dogs. The Association has its headquarters in Richmond.

AIDS TO POSTAL DELIVERY

We published yesterday an important letter from Postmaster Smith. The communication is timely and suggestive. The lack of both house numbers and mail receptacles in Alexandria impedes the prompt delivery of letters and endangers their safety.

Postmaster Smith also drops a seasonable hint as to mailing letters early, instead of waiting till the close of business hours and flooding the Post-office with the accumulation of an entire day's correspondence.

The business and civic organizations of the city are invited to extend their cooperation in these important matters, and we trust they will lend their aid. Especially as the holiday season is approaching, do all these suggestions assume an added significance, and it is to the advantage of every citizen to give his assistanee. House numbers should be placed on every door, and mail-boxes provided, and thus enable the carriers to work more speedily and the mail to reach its proper destination.

Dr. Kahler Shoes
"Comfortable Shoes Made Stylish"
FOLKS' feet differ as much as their faces. Upon this simple physiological fact, over-looked by many makers and sellers of shoes, has built for DR. KAHLER shoes the finest comfort shoe business in the world. Every shoe has been created by the original DR. KAHLER, to serve the individual needs of a certain type of foot, as developed during his practice. Many people keep changing shoes, and are always half satisfied until, by chance, they come across the last that seems to have been originated for their foot. Then they will have no other shoe—this we have witnessed from our many satisfied customers whom we have comfortably fitted in DR. KAHLER shoes. Below are illustrated two of the five features of these shoes.

The Straight Line Last
This type of last allows the foot to retain its normal shape without the distortion of the toes that produce bunions.
Come in and try on a pair—you will then realize that there is real "Sanity in Comfort Footwear." That a foot to be comfortable does not require a twisted ill-looking shoe, a heavy rigid shoe, to encase the foot like a Plaster of Paris cast, or a soft shoe without a backbone that cannot even give the gentlest support required.

LOYAL ORDER OF MOOSE

Virginia Lodge No. 1076, Loyal Order of Moose meets every 1st and 3rd Monday.

The Order was founded in 1888. In 1906 it consisted of less than 250 members. Fifteen years tells the story of its marvelous growth. The reason is that the Loyal order of Moose combines with good fellowship, a service which extends farther and touches the lives of its members in more ways than is usual. In the Moose lodges we find the artist and the artisan, the maufacturer and the craftsman, the laborer, the business man, the banker, the professional man, all uniting in a great cause, for the ideals of the order appeal to the human side of men. Because of this human touch, this body of more than a half million men, among whom wage earner largly predominates, are welded together in a solid phalanx in the great cause of fraternity and childhood. And as a result, more than 1,035 boys and girls who would otherwise be without opportunity are finding a home, receiving an education, learning a trade, and becoming well equipped for the duties of citizenship. All white men of good moral character above the age of 21 years are eligible for membership. Men below 50 years may be either beneficial or non-beneficial.

Charter now open for a short while Initation fee $10.00.

Social Happenings

With two weddings on the carpet, the past week has been one of unusual gayety for Alexandria. Not since prewar days has there been such a display of hospitality and the afternoon tea cup came once more into its own.

The wedding of Miss Julia Hopkins and Mr. Harrison Saunders attracted a large number of out-of-town guests, a few of whom are still among the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Hopkins. Mrs. Charles Hutton Hill of New York will be with Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins for an indefinite stay as also Mrs. Janie Thomas of Norfolk.

Among the interesting events of the week will be the wedding this afternoon of Miss Anne Cabell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ellet Cabell and Ensign Ferguson Bryan, son of Capt and Mrs. Albert Bryan. The ceremony will take place in St. Paul's Episcopal Church at five o'clock and will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents in South St. Asaph street. Rev. Dr. Berryman Green, Rev. Dr. William J. Morton and the Rev. Percy Foster Hall will be the officiating ministers

The bride will have as her only attendant, her sister, Miss Mary Cabell of Norfolk, and the best man will be Mr. Albert V. Bryan, brother of the groom. St. Paul's choir will sing Lohengrin's wedding march

A charming affair of the week was the shower for Miss Cabell given by Misses Sarah and Charlotte Kemper at their home in Rosemont. Those assisting the Misses Kemper were Mrs. Nicholas Trapnell, Miss Nina Fulton, Miss Hilda Schneider, Miss Mary Hunt Roberts and Miss Elizabeth Boothe.

Miss Hilda Schneider entertained informally at tea during the week for Miss Anne Cabell, Mrs. Harrison Saunders, nee Miss Julia Hopkins and Mrs. Nicholas Trapnell, formerly Miss Fortune Kirkpatrick and a bride of the early summer. Assisting Miss Schneider were Mrs. J. K. M. Norton, Mrs. Charles F. Holden, Mrs. Thomas Franklin. Miss Nancy Tackett, Miss Collins Jones, Miss Sarah Kemper, Miss Charlotte Kemper, Miss Nina Fulton and Miss Elizabeth Schneider.

Miss Collins Jones had as her guests during the week Miss Elizabeth Hull and Miss Marybel Gill, of Baltimore.

Miss Margaret Moncure is spending the week-end in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Frank King and Miss Dorothy King are attending the football game and hop at the U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, this week-end.

NOT DUE TO SEX ALONE.

Alexandria Women Have Learned the Cause of Many Mysterious Pains and Aches

Many women have come to know that sex isn't the reason for all backaches, dizzy headaches and urinary disorders. Men have these troubles, too, and often they come from kidney weakness. To live simply, eat sparingly, take better care of one's self and to use Doan's Kidney Pills, is bound to help bad kidneys get better. There is no other remedy so well recommended by Alexandria people. Ask your neighbor! Read this case:

Mrs. Chas. Cook, 410 Queen St., Alexandria, says: "After an attack of the "flu" my kidneys were left in bad shape. My back pained me so I was in misery all the time. It seemed as though a dagger were being thrust into my kidneys. Mornings I was tired and worn out and felt like giving up. A friend saw the condition I was in and told me what a wonderful remedy Doan's Kidney Pills are. I sent to Creighton's Drug Store for some. Doan's fixed me up all right in a short time. The pains all left

It Is Here Today
See It—Ride In It

Think of a light, economical, moderate priced car that does these things:

That is so fleet and smooth in its response to your will you are never conscious that it is a piece of machinery.

That is so easily operated you can guide it for hours through crowded city traffic or send it across country for a whole day's run without the usual fatigue to driver or passenger.

That is so reliable that attention with an oil can virtually constitutes its sole service requirement.

Such was the aim and such is the achievemens—

the New and Improved ESSEX

Get a New and Joyous Thrill in Motoring

Old Essex drivers sense the difference as soon as they take the wheel.

Its speed and acceleration and endurance are known to them. Others may not be so familiar with these Essex qualities. Their surprise and delight will be all the greater.

But old owners, who know the Essex will be charmed at the smoother way the New Improved Essex does the things that gives them pride in their cars.

More Economy Than Ever

From the first Essex appealed to men because it does what costlier and larger cars do and at small car cost in fuel, oil and tires.

The New Improved Essex adds gasoline mileage. Oil economy is greater, although old Essex cars averaged around 300 miles to the quart. Its tires often gave 10,000 to 15,000 miles of service. Now cord tires are standard equipment and greatly increase tire mileage.

Old Essex owners hardly understand how reliability could be increased. Many—hundreds in fact—report upwards of 30,000 and 40,000 miles of service, with incredibly small repair bills as judged by the usual requirements of motor car operation.

But the new improved Essex lengthens the period of that service. Simple and inexpensive ways to replace parts as they wear are provided. Thus the tight, squeak-free and rattle-free qualities and lively performance of the Essex when new, may be retained throughout the life of the car. And how long an Essex may be relied upon to serve, needs more years for proof than opportunity has yet provided.

A Better Car for Less Money

All the advantages of the original Essex are retained. The pride of ownership is greater. You can turn it in narrow streets. It finds room in small parking spaces. It is small and light and yet commodious, safe and comfortable.

The New Improved Essex expresses the new day meaning of refinement—of reduced weight—freedom from unnecessary bulk, and the finest mark of motoring luxury.

When Essex is considered, size and price do not mark the standard of car quality or value.

We want you to know that—a ride will prove it.

SHE TOOK HER FRIEND'S ADVICE

Now is in the Best of Health Because she took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Detroit, Mich.—"I was not feeling well for several years and never was able to eat any breakfast and always complained of a headache or tired feeling which at times required me to stop my work and rest. I have never had a physician and never took any medicine for it until yours was recommended to me by a neighbor whom I used to visit frequently. I took four bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now I am in the best of health and enjoy doing my work every moment of the day. It surely put life and 'pep' into my system."—Mrs. L. M. DARRAS, 46 Howard St., Detroit, Michigan.

It is not always in business that a woman is forced to give up her work on account of ill health. It is quite as often the woman who does her own work at home. When backaches and headaches drive out all ambition, when that bearing-down sensation attacks you, when you are nervous and blue, the one great help for such ailments is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

ATTRACTIONS NEXT WEEK IN WASHINGTON

BEBE DANIELS AT MOORE'S RIALTO

A. H. Woods Offers Comedies at Poli's and Shubert-Garrick

Sascha Jacobsen

Sascha Jacobsen, the celebrated violin virtuoso and concert artist appearing at Moore's Rialto next week, was born in Russia and began the study of the violin at the age of eight. Three years later his parents came to America, and Jacobsen has never gone back to Europe to acquire the glamour of a foreign made reputation, but has studied and developed his genius in New York under the supervision of Franz Kneisel.

About his debut in New York in 1915, Max Smith, of the New York American, wrote: "Sascha Jacobsen was at once recognized by connoisseurs as one of the most promising violinists of the younger generation. Such artistic poise, repose and concentration are rarely found in one of his age—already his reputation is made."

"Ladies Night"

Commencing next Sunday night, at Poli's, A. H. Woods will present his Eltinge Theatre success of last season, "Ladies Night," with the New York cast and production. Avery Hopwood and Charlton Andrews are the authors of this spicy and hilariously funny farce with its novel second act which shows a Turkish bath on ladies' night—and what happened when three men unintentionally found themselves numbered among the beauteous and scantily clad patrons of the bath.

Capitol Burlesque

The dancing show will be the unusual attraction at the Capitol Theatre next week, and is known as the "Sweet Sweetie Girls." Pretty girls, big girls, little girls, and fascinating girls and a great big chorus of beautiful girls is on the bill.

At the Gayety

Frank Hunter will grace the stage at the Gayety Theatre next week in Jas. E. Cooper's big "Jamboree." Twenty "Beautiful Beauties" will accompany the show and will right out in front during the evening's entertainment.
